Murphy's Joyful Spark

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, banjo

Verse 1

With a fluffy white coat and a joyful grin,
Murphy loved adventure, where do we begin?
From a jet ski's spray to a snowmobile's speed,
Any wild ride, he was always keen indeed.
At the drag races with Dad Sean, uncles and cousins so keen,
Cheering for family, the best race ever seen.
With a wagging tail and a happy bark,
He truly lit up every day, every park.

Chorus

Oh, Murphy, our best friend, so full of grace,
Fourteen long years, you brightened our space.
Every moment a gift, every memory sweet,
A celebration of life, from head to your feet.

Verse 2

We'd share our quiet snuggles, beneath one soft blanket,
On boat rides and car rides, no moment he'd just take it.
With a nudge and a bark, "I want one!" he would say,
Sharing every snack, throughout the whole day.
He loved his Mom Reesie and his Gramare so dear,
Chasing away every worry and fear.
At the bar with his Dad, a party he'd start,
And everyone loved Murphy, straight from the heart.

Chorus

Oh, Murphy, our best friend, so full of grace,
Fourteen long years, you brightened our space.
Every moment a gift, every memory sweet,
A celebration of life, from head to your feet.

My best buddy, I'll love you forever, it's true,
No more pain, little one, I whisper to you.
The world was full of friends he hadn't met yet, it's clear,
You filled every moment with joy and cheer.
Have good nappies, my sweet, gentle soul,
You made my whole world feel happy and whole.

Banjo Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Murphy, our best friend, so full of grace,
Fourteen long years, you brightened our space.
Every moment a gift, every memory sweet,
A celebration of life, from head to your feet.

Outro

Now you're running free, across the Rainbow Bridge wide,
With all your old friends, by your peaceful side.
Singing to the trains, beneath skies so blue,
My sweet Murphy, we'll always love you.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
