
Zoe's Golden Light

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

The day you came, a happy face, a golden, shining light,
You filled each corner of my home, so beautiful and bright.

A wagging tail, a gentle sigh, a paw within my hand,
The sweetest Golden ever found, across the whole wide land.
With soulful eyes, so full of grace, you taught me how to see,
The simple joys in every day, just you and happy me.
A faithful friend, so true and kind, a bond beyond compare,
My precious Zoe, my heart's delight, a spirit light and fair.

Chorus

Oh, Zoe, my sweet Zoe, for eight years by my side,
A golden ray of sunshine, spreading far and wide.
Though tears may fall, my heart holds tight to every joy we knew,
My fuzzy bear, my angel, I'll always be with you.

Verse 2

I loved our mornings, on the bed, so cozy and so warm,
Your head upon my pillow, safe from any kind of storm.
Those gentle nudges, sleepy stretch, a lick upon my cheek,
The quiet comfort of your love, the solace that I'd seek.
With every belly rub you'd sigh, a happy, peaceful sound,
The greatest comfort, truly felt, the sweetest joy I found.
These precious moments, held so dear, a treasure in my mind,
The purest love, forever etched, a bond of heart and mind.

Chorus

Oh, Zoe, my sweet Zoe, for eight years by my side,
A golden ray of sunshine, spreading far and wide.
Though tears may fall, my heart holds tight to every joy we knew,
My fuzzy bear, my angel, I'll always be with you.

Verse 3

Zoe's Golden Light (continued)

Your silly face, a joyful sight, could always make me grin,
A goofy soul, so smart and bright, where do I even begin?
You'd chase the deer, the birds, the fish, a blur of golden fur,
And broccoli crunch, your happy dish, a sound I still prefer.
Your paw would tap, your head would flip, demanding every rub,
Then sleeping howls, a soft, sweet sigh, within your dreamy hub.
These memories, pure happiness, a light that still shines through,
My precious Zoe, my sweet princess, forever loving you.

Bridge

I love you so much, life will never be the same, it's true,
Go chase the birdies, darling, through the skies of endless blue.
My angel heart, my fuzzy bear, someday we'll meet again,
So loved by all, my dearest friend, beyond the falling rain.
You touched so many lives, my dear, with every joyful bark,
And left a light within my soul, a shining, endless spark.

Instrumental - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Zoe, my sweet Zoe, for eight years by my side,
A golden ray of sunshine, spreading far and wide.
Though tears may fall, my heart holds tight to every joy we knew,
My fuzzy bear, my angel, I'll always be with you.

Outro

I feel you close, my precious girl, watching over me,
Or looking down from up above, across a starlit sea.
Perhaps you're dreaming sweet dreams now, or running free and bright,
Until we meet again, my love, in endless golden light.
I miss you every single day, my heart still yearns for you,
But in my spirit, you remain, my love, forever true.

Outro - ukulele fade
