Lilly's Song

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

From the moment you came, a shadow so true,
When the fridge door opened, there you always flew.
With your blankie clutched tight, every guest got a cheer,
And your sweet, rumbling snore, so close to my ear.

Chorus

Oh, Lilly, my Lilly, my constant delight,
For ten years and eight months, you filled up my life with your light.
A love pure and honest, a bond strong and deep,
A lifetime of memories, my heart will now keep.

Verse 2

That joyful reception when I walked through the door,
A greeting more precious than I could ask for.
Each morning, your soft nose, a brush on my skin,
A silent reminder of where love begins.

Chorus

Oh, Lilly, my Lilly, my constant delight,
For ten years and eight months, you filled up my life with your light.
A love pure and honest, a bond strong and deep,
A lifetime of memories, my heart will now keep.

Verse 3

At the table you'd beg, with a soft, knowing gaze,
Paper towels prepared for your drooling-sweet ways.
Your big bark a warning, but boundless your heart,
Watching lizards, then tearing each gift set apart.

Bridge

I love you, my Lilly girl, it's true what I say,

Lilly's Song (continued)

You're the last dog I'll own, come what may.
The best I had saved, you were truly the one,
My heart's peaceful sunset, my dearest bright sun.

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Lilly, my Lilly, my constant delight,
For ten years and eight months, you filled up my life with your light.
A love pure and honest, a bond strong and deep,
A lifetime of memories, my heart will now keep.

Outro

I know you are waiting, beyond the bright gate,
"Don't ever leave me again," you would state.
And I see you there sleeping, or running so free,
Till I finally come home, Lilly, to you and to me.

Forever in our hearts
