Zoe's Golden Light

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

The day you came, a happy blur, a joyful, wagging tail,
My Golden girl, so full of glee, a love that would prevail.
Your silly face, a precious sight, could always make me grin,
Just looking at you, sweet Zoe, that's where the joy would begin.
So smart and funny, full of charm, a bright and happy soul,
You filled my heart, you kept me safe, you made my spirit whole.
A faithful friend, so true and dear, a comfort in my days,
In every moment, you were there, in countless loving ways.

Chorus

Oh, Zoe, my sweet Zoe, for eight years by my side,
My fuzzy bear, my angel, where pure happiness would hide.
Though tears may fall, my heart holds tight to every joy we knew,
Life's not the same without you, love, but someday I'll find you.

Verse 2

I loved our mornings, on the bed, a warm and cozy place,
Your head upon my pillow, with that gentle, sleepy face.
Those softest nudges, asking for more, a paw upon my hand,
Your upside-down head, a funny plea, the sweetest in the land.
A happy sigh for belly rubs, a sound I loved to hear,
You brought such comfort to my life, dispelling every fear.
These precious moments, held so close, a treasure in my mind,
The purest love, forever etched, a bond of heart and kind.

Chorus

Oh, Zoe, my sweet Zoe, for eight years by my side,
My fuzzy bear, my angel, where pure happiness would hide.
Though tears may fall, my heart holds tight to every joy we knew,
Life's not the same without you, love, but someday I'll find you.

Bridge

Zoe's Golden Light (continued)

Go chase the birdies, darling, through the skies of endless blue,
And deer and fish, with happy barks, all waiting there for you.
I hear your sleeping howls sometimes, a soft and gentle sound,
And broccoli crunch, my sweet Zoe, the happiest I've found.
My angel heart, my fuzzy bear, your spirit still shines bright,
Until we meet again, my love, in that eternal light.

Instrumental - harmonica, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Zoe, my sweet Zoe, for eight years by my side,
My fuzzy bear, my angel, where pure happiness would hide.
Though tears may fall, my heart holds tight to every joy we knew,
Life's not the same without you, love, but someday I'll find you.

Outro

I feel you close, my precious girl, a warmth within my heart,
A memory that time won't break, a love that's set apart.
Perhaps you're running, free and light, or sleeping sweet and deep,
The promises of endless love, my darling, I will keep.

Outro - mandolin fade

Forever in our hearts
