
Moto's Gentle Sleep

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

The first time I saw you, a tiny, happy sight,
With a wagging tail, a flicker of pure light.
A treat in your mouth, you walked with such a gleam,
A proud little strut, a happy, silent dream.
You looked back at me, a sparkle in your eye,
As if to say, "Look what I have, beneath this sky."
A Toy Fox Terrier, so quick and so petite,
From that moment on, my world felt so complete.

Chorus

Moto, my sweet Moto, thirteen years by my side,
A love so pure, where my heart could safely hide.
My little shadow, my constant, faithful friend,
A bond like ours will truly never end.

Verse 2

You followed my footsteps, no matter where I'd roam,
In every single room, you made yourself at home.
A soft bed in the bathroom, just for your sweet sleep,
While I would get ready, secrets you would keep.
Through makeup and showers, your presence was a grace,
Always close beside me, finding your own space.
Every moment of the day, a comfort so profound,
The truest companion that I have ever found.

Chorus

Moto, my sweet Moto, thirteen years by my side,
A love so pure, where my heart could safely hide.
My little shadow, my constant, faithful friend,
A bond like ours will truly never end.

Verse 3

Moto's Gentle Sleep (continued)

Though your sweet voice was muted, a sound you still could find,
A tiny little squeak, for me, so soft and kind.
We'd play a secret game then, a language we would share,
Your gentle squeak, my bark, floating on the air.
You'd make your quiet sound, a whisper from your heart,
I'd answer with my bark, right from the very start.
A tender, loving rhythm, a moment pure and true,
My darling little Moto, I'll always cherish you.

Bridge

There will never be another, my heart feels this so deep,
A love like ours, a promise I will keep.
I'll see you soon, my darling, across the starry blue,
Until that day arrives, know I love you, I love you.

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Moto, my sweet Moto, thirteen years by my side,
A love so pure, where my heart could safely hide.
My little shadow, my constant, faithful friend,
A bond like ours will truly never end.

Outro

Now you're checking every room, then finding sunlit grace,
Napping peacefully, in your favorite, quiet place.
Waiting for my return, a slumber soft and deep,
Until we meet again, my sweet Moto, gently sleep.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
